Villa Eleonora, the new residence created in Gardone Riviera, in the historic village of Fasano, is made up of eight class A residential units, divided into two buildings.

Apartment no. 2: Ground floor with private garden and terrace, composed of living room, open kitchen, 2 bedrooms, 2 bathrooms; single and double garages and cellars are available.

Inserted in a place of great beauty, surrounded by nature, a stone's throw from the lake, Villa Eleonora skillfully combines accuracy and elegance with the modern living of new architectural concepts, combining advanced construction quality with carefully studied design.

The enchanting view of the lake, the atmosphere of refined practicality, the liveability of the terraces and gardens, the use of the private swimming pool which overlooks the lake, offer the privilege of living your daily life in comfort and relaxation in an extraordinary place for beauty, elegance, history and culture.

This awareness guided and inspired the architects in the creation of this exclusive residential project
